More Midland Red Memories

The Birmingham and Midland Motor Omnibus Company, affectionately known as 'The Friendly Midland Red', was unique amongst bus companies. Operating throughout the Midlands, it actually built most of its buses up until 1970.

We have produced two Midland Red pictorial albums so far and we are frequently asked when we will be producing another one - so here it is.

This pictorial booklet is a companion to our previous 'Midland Red around Nuneaton and Coventry' and Midland Red Memories titles. It has a number of previously unseen images from Midlands-based transport historian Ken Crawley. There are also more historic images from the Steven Knight Media collection.

Fleet Handbook
2014 Edition

One of the more popular fleets in the Fleet Handbook series is Stagecoach Midlands. Since our first edition last year the fleet has received significant investment in new vehicles, most recently 37 ADL E20D/Enviro 200s for the Northampton operation. This has resulted in many older Dennis Darts being withdrawn and sold. New vehicles have also joined the Megabus fleet.

We have received many requests to bring out this new edition, which should be available from late May 2014.

This 40 page book covers the Stagecoach Midlands fleet, which operates across Northamptonshire and Warwickshire. All vehicles are listed with ample illustrations. The planned allocation of vehicle types to routes, together with information on branding and liveries is also detailed. An eight page Supplement gives complete vehicle allocation details.

Fleet Handbook

Following the success of other Fleetbooks, Steve has received many requests for a Fleet Handbook covering the Stagecoach Yorkshire fleet and here it is! The book covers Stagecoach operations around Sheffield, Chesterfield, Dearne Valley and Barnsley. The 32 page book has full details of the fleet including liveries and branding details as well as the weekday allocation of vehicle types to routes. Details of vehicle allocations to garages are also provided as an 8 page insert. Illustrated in colour throughout. The book has been produced with the support of Stagecoach Yorkshire management and all details have been confirmed against the official records maintained by the company. New in late February 2014.

After these are ready, the third Edition of the EYMS Fleetbook will be published in mid-August in time for East Yorkshire's Big Bus Day. The provisional plan is for a Stagecoach Oxford Fleetbook to appear in September/October. With few fleet changes at Stagecoach East/East Midlands there are no plans for new editions of these Fleetbooks this year.
